

WARNING

YOU ARE AT HIGH RISK OF BEING EXPLOITED.

As a refugee, you are in danger of being exploited. While anyone can be a victim of exploitation, traffickers are known to prey on those coming from another country, or a crisis situation. They may trick you into a dangerous situation, such as forced labor or sexual exploitation through deception, threats, or violence. This is illegal, and violates your rights. If you find yourself in a dangerous situation, or you suspect someone else is in one, we want to help you.

IF YOU FEEL THREATENED OR SEE SOMETHING SUSPICIOUS CALL:

112

EUROPEAN EMERGENCY LINE

1109

NATIONAL HUMAN TRAFFICKING RESOURCE LINE

THESE ARE SOME SIGNS THAT CAN HELP YOU RECOGNIZE IF YOU ARE IN A DANGEROUS SITUATION:

- + You are offered a job by someone you don't know.
- + You are offered free transportation, accommodation, or travel documents.
- + Your identification documents are taken away from you.
- + You are forced to do something against your will, such as having sex.
- + You are not allowed to go to the doctor, talk to authorities, or ask for help.
- + You are forced to sleep and work at the same place.
- + You are treated in an aggressive manner, physically or verbally.
- + You are told that you have a debt to pay, or that you have to pay back money.
- + You are not allowed to move freely or communicate with other people.
- + You don't get paid for your job or they keep a significant part of your salary.
- + You are not allowed breaks while working.